Original synthetic laboratory record: opal distance. Opal’s measured Euclidean distance between its two marked laboratory points is 13 cm. Coordinates are omitted. Only recorded fields may be used; omitted quantities, passwords and external claims are unknown.